7. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Your attention is drawn to the fact that when we provide Investment Services, we, a BNP Paribas Group Entity (meaning any entity of the BNP Paribas group including BNP Paribas and its subsidiary undertakings and joint ventures from time to time) or some other person connected with us (collectively "Connected Persons") may have an interest, relationship or arrangement that is material in relation to the Investment, transaction or service concerned. We have procedures to identify, manage and/or prevent conflicts of interest. There will be scenarios and occasions where we may not be able to act on a transaction and/or in relation to an Investment Service. Notwithstanding the foregoing, we or any of our Connected Persons may, subject to applicable law and regulation:

- (a) act in any capacity for any other person, buy, sell, hold or deal (or arrange any dealing) in any Investment or any other asset for our own account or the account of any other person notwithstanding that the same Investment or asset, a related investment or asset or a related investment or asset for an asset underlying that investment or asset may be comprised in your account(s) or subject to an Instruction in respect of your account(s);
- (b) sell to you securities held by us on our own account (including on an organised, frequent and systematic and substantial basis as a systematic internaliser) or by our Connected Persons;
- (c) purchase for our own or our Connected Persons' account securities, Investments and other products forming part of your account(s);
- (d) match your Order with ours and/or with orders of any of our Connected Persons by acting on our or their behalf as well as on your behalf;
- (e) deal in securities where we or our Connected Persons may be involved in a new issue, rights issue, take-over or other transaction;
- (f) publish a research recommendation, including, without limitation, an investment recommendation (as defined in Regulation (EU) No 596/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 April 2014 on market abuse and repealing Directive 2003/6/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council and Commission Directives 2003/124/EC, 2003/125/EC and 2004/72/EC) to our clients (including you) knowing that we or a Connected Person may have acted upon it or made use of information on which it is based;
- (g) act as the financial adviser or a lending bank or otherwise as a contractual counterparty to the company whose securities you are buying or selling; and
- (h) take account of any information relating to a proposed transaction, Investment or service concerned, in managing our market making positions or otherwise limiting the risks to which we are exposed in the course of our market making activities and we will likely seek to manage the risk associated with the particular trade by engaging in hedging activity in the subject security, securities underlying or referencing the subject security, or other related instruments. In particular, where that information relates to a proposed transaction, Investment or service concerned for which you have asked us to quote terms, and in which we would commit our capital, we may also, unless we specifically agree otherwise with you in a particular case, make use of that information to enter into transactions with a view to executing or facilitating the execution of the proposed transaction, Investment or service concerned on terms that are competitive in the prevailing market conditions. Such transactions could be at a different price from, and we may make a profit or loss on such transaction relative to, the price at which we execute your transaction, Investment or service. The effect of these and other trading activities of ours described in this paragraph (h) may be to increase the market price of investments you are buying or decrease the market price of investments you are selling. However, we will generally engage in such activities in a manner designed to limit market impact to the extent reasonably practicable. Such activity will only be carried out in accordance with applicable law and regulation.

Neither the relationship between us, nor the services to be provided by us, nor any recommendation or advice tendered to you, nor any other matter, will give rise to any fiduciary or equitable duties on our part which would oblige us or any Connected Person to accept responsibilities more extensive than expressly agreed in writing between us or which would prevent or hinder us or any Connected Person in carrying out any of the activities specified above or which will require us to account to you for any profit, except as required by applicable law and regulation.
